 Otto-Bennemann-Schule	Loose Change Writing a comment	Name:
		Date:

Tasks:

1. Read the information on how to write a comment.
2. Comment on this statement: "Manners make men." in reference to "Loose Change". (150-200 words)
 - a. Pre-structure/choose your arguments
 - b. find examples from the story
 - c. Use connectives to create a coherent text

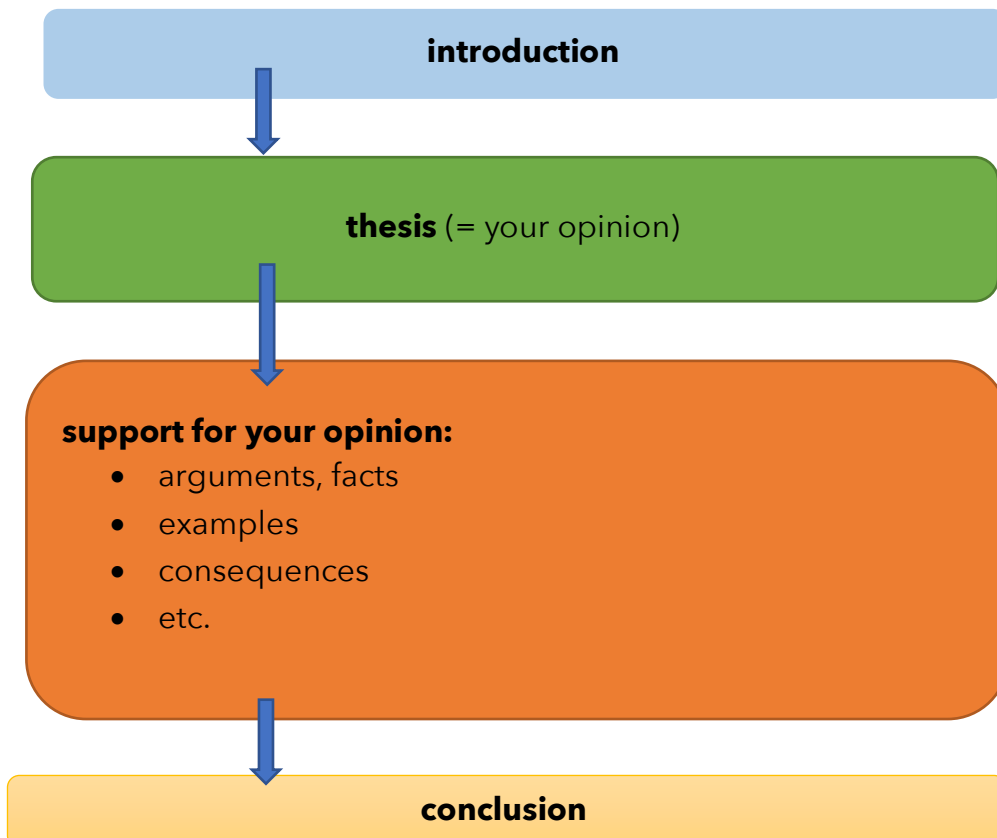

Information: How to write a comment

Source: <https://www.schule-bw.de/faecher-und-schularten/sprachen-und-literatur/englisch/unterrichtsmaterialien-nach-kompetenzen/schreiben/howtowrite/2commentdiscuss>

Format: "comment on"

You give your personal opinion (= thesis) and then support it with arguments, facts etc.

There is no need to look at the side you don't agree with!

 Otto- Bennemann- Schule	Loose Change Writing a comment	Name:
		Date:

Tips for writing your comment:

- Begin a new paragraph for each new idea.
- Make sure you use linking words to structure your ideas.
- Don't just list arguments. Explain them, give examples, show consequences.... your essay will be a lot more convincing that way.
- Remember to write in formal style (no colloquialisms, no slang, use full forms (e.g. he is, they are instead of he's and they're).